Re: PK Music Performance, Inc. v. Timberlake et al., No. 1:16-cv-01215-VSB
Consent Letter Seeking Extension of Fed. R. Civ. P. 14 & 15 Deadlines

Dear Judge Broderick:

This firm is counsel to Defendants Tennman Productions, LLC, Tennman Tunes, LLC, Justin Timberlake, Sony Music Entertainment, and Zomba Recording LLC and we write on behalf of all Defendants in the above referenced-matter.

Pursuant to the Court's September 30, 2018 Opinion and Order (Doc. No. 113), Defendants' were ordered to file their Answers to Plaintiff's Complaint by October 22, 2018. On the morning of October 22, the parties submitted a Proposed Consent Order that would have extended Defendants' time to answer until December 6, 2018 (Doc. No. 114), which the Court so Ordered on October 23, 2018 (Doc. No. 119). However, as the Court had not yet So Ordered the proposed consent order by the close of business, Defendants, out of an abundance of caution, filed their Answers to preserve their defenses and avoid a default.

Now that the Court has so ordered the proposed consent order, Defendants request, with consent of the Plaintiff, that the Court extend the time for Defendants to implead third parties and to amend their answers under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 14 and 15 to coincide with the So Ordered answer deadline of December 6, 2018. The proposed extension will have no effect on any other deadlines in this case.
